FireLine® Braided Bead Thread

BEST SELLER!

FireLine® is a pre waxed, braided cord consisting of gel-spun polyethylene – which is known as the strongest fiber, per diameter, ever created. It has an unbelievably high tensile strength and has been recommended in numerous how-to articles on beadworking. The 4 and 6 lb. tests will fit a #12 English beading needle. the BEADSMITH[®]

Flexible Twisted Wire Beading Needles

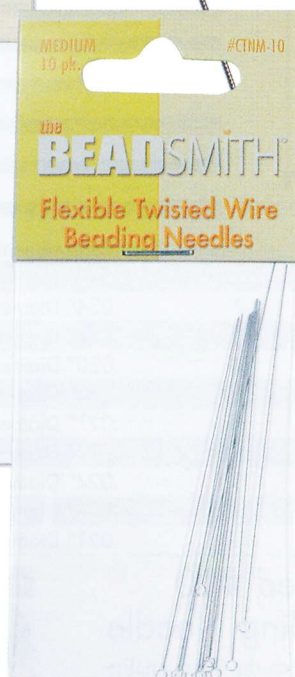

Available in Two Sizes!

These needles are especially helpful when thread has to be passed through beads more than once (and a straight needle just won't fit). Their large eyes make them very easy to thread, then once passed through a bead hole they collapse and help hold the thread more firmly. Choose from Fine or Medium in packs of 10 or 50.

bead boards & trays

Bead Buddy Design to Go™ Bead Board New Item!

At any point during the design process, snap on the snug-fitting lid (which keeps the beads in their channel and protects your design). The Bead Buddy Design Board is now ready, so you can take it to class, on vacation or just to set aside until you are ready to bead again.

In the center of the board are 5 extra compartments in which you can store beads, findings, needles or thread while you work.

The Bead Buddy Design Board has three channels in which to place your beads: The innermost holds smaller beads up to 5 mm, and the larger channels, including a bracelet channel at the bottom of the board, hold beads up to 10 mm.

Well-marked channels make accurate measuring easy and hold up to 10mm beads. Multiple channels allow you to design up to and string a beaded piece with more than one strand and ensure that multi-strand pieces are the same length or graduated lengths.
